

Want to increase cultural humility and LGBTQ+ awareness in your workplace?

We offer a variety of education sessions to help make corporate spaces more affirming for our community. We respectfully request an honorarium of $1,500 to support Howard Brown in exchange for the presentation.

LGBTQ+ Health Disparities and Mental Wellness

This presentation touches on the many health disparities that disproportionately impact the LGBTQ+ community and the long-term impact of COVID-19 on the mental health of LGBTQ+ community members.

LGBTQ+ History

This presentation is a deep dive into the colorful history of the LGBTQ+ community, from Ancient Egypt to the Stonewall Movement, to the AIDS epidemic, and into the present day.

LGBTQ+ Allyship

This presentation discusses what it means to be an ally for the LGBTQ+ community and to improve your allyship.

Microaggressions

This presentation is a course on microaggressions that are faced by the LGBTQ+ community and other marginalized communities. Attendees will be introduced to the concepts of privilege and microaggressions and learn how to prevent microaggressions in their everyday lives.

Transgender and Gender Non-Conforming (TGNC) 101

This informational session discusses the varied aspects of the TGNC experience, ranging from topics such as gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, and more.

Journey to Ending HIV

This presentation discusses the Journey to Zero. Beginning with the history of the virus and its impact on the LGBTQ+ community, going through the community activism and scientific advancements that revolutionized treatment and quality of life for those living with HIV, and ending with the latest breakthroughs in treatment and government responses leading us to a future free from HIV.

Frequently asked questions:

How long do the presentations last? Typically, 45min to 60min depending on Q+A.

Are presentations virtual or in-person? Presentations can be done virtual, in-person, or hybrid depending on what will maximize attendance and impact.

Can we adjust the presentations? Minor adjustments can be made to fit the interests of our partners. Presentations can also be sent ahead of time for approval.