Announcing Illinois Attorney General Kwame Raoul as Our 2026 Champion of Howard Brown Awardee

We are honored to recognize Illinois Attorney General Kwame Raoul as the recipient of the Champion of Howard Brown Award at Compass 2026. This newly established award celebrates individuals whose unwavering support of Howard Brown Health and steadfast advocacy for the LGBTQ+ community have made a meaningful and lasting impact.

Attorney General Raoul exemplifies this commitment through his leadership in defending the rights, safety, and dignity of LGBTQ+ individuals and other marginalized communities across Illinois. From advancing legal protections and challenging discriminatory policies to standing firmly for equitable access to healthcare and justice, his work has helped ensure that Illinois remains a place where all people are protected and affirmed. His advocacy reflects a deep and enduring dedication to equity, making him a true champion of Howard Brown's mission and the communities we serve.
